

University of Washington Department of Genome Sciences in collaboration with Brotman-Baty Institute for Precision Medicine presents

The Personal Genome:

Sequencing, Understanding And Editing The Genome To Improve Human Health

Foegle Auditorium

9–9:25am Coffee and Snacks

9:25–10am Welcome & Introduction
Doug Fowler

Eric Dishman,
Director All of Us, Nat'l Institutes of Health

10–11:30am Nancy Cox,
Director, Vanderbilt Genetics Institute

Amit Khera,
Physician Scientist, MGH & Broad Institute

Madelyn Gillentine,
Postdoctoral Fellow, Eichler Lab

11:30–12:30pm Lunch

12:30–2pm Matthew Porteus,
Associate Professor, Stanford

Serena Nik-Zainal,
Clinician Scientist, Cambridge

Junyue Cao,
Graduate Student, Shendure Lab

2–2:30pm Coffee Break

2:30–4pm Heidi Rehm,
Institute Member, Broad Institute

Tracy Dixon-Salazar,
Director, LGS Foundation

Meredith Course,
Postdoctoral Fellow, Valdmantis Lab

Vista Cafe

4–5:30pm Happy Hour

Kane Hall

5:30–7pm Speaker Dinner

7–8pm Keynote Address
Eric Dishman